Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Various access problems impede the right to a productive and satisfying life for every person who is disabled; and,

WHEREAS, Various persons in rehabilitation are directly and effectively working to provide maximum possible opportunities for persons who are disabled; and,

WHEREAS, This is the International Year of the Disabled Person and this administration and its agencies join in this effort to give handicapped persons the opportunity for full participation and equality; I, as Governor of this State, commend the leadership and enthusiastic support of the many private organizations which are daily working for the handicapped in our State and, as a State, we can take pride in the contributions that persons with disabilities have made in such fields as medicine, science, education, the arts, law, journalism, agriculture, the entire sweep of technological advances, politics, and government; and,

WHEREAS, Various persons in the rehabilitation movement need the informed cooperation and support of our total community to improve and maintain the quality of life and quality of rehabilitation services to persons who are disabled:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of September, 1981, as

REHABILITATION MONTH

In South Dakota, and I call on each citizen to join the South Dakota Chapter of the National Rehabilitation Association in this observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fourth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
